Madison...Small business owner Robert Brooks officially begins his first term in the 102nd State Legislature today. Rep. Brooks (R-Saukville) took the oath of office in a ceremony in the Assembly chambers Monday afternoon. As a new Representative in the State Assembly, he is committed to improving the business climate to help create more private sector jobs, increase worker training, and close the skills gap.

"I am honored to be inaugurated into the Wisconsin State Assembly today," said Rep. Brooks. "I look forward to working with all my colleagues from all over the state to continue to move Wisconsin forward and put more money into the pockets of hardworking Wisconsin taxpayers."

Rep. Brooks is serving as the Vice-Chair of the Assembly Colleges and Universities Committee. He is also a member of the Children and Families, Environment and Forestry, Education, and House and Real Estate Committees.

"I am eager to begin work in the legislature," said Rep. Brooks. "As a real estate agent, small business owner, and former county official, I believe I bring a wealth of real-life experience to the committees that I will be serving on."

"I understand the needs of businesses, and believe it is important to reduce the size of government and cut the red tape that inhibits local business from thriving," added Rep. Brooks. "My breadth of experiences will be a valuable asset to the state legislature."

Joining Rep. Brooks at the inaugural ceremony were his family and friends, including the Ozaukee County Administrator.

Rep. Brooks is one of sixty-three Assembly Republicans for the 2015-2016 legislative session. It is the largest GOP Assembly majority since 1957.
